

Mr. Franz Gertze, is the serving Chief Executive Officer of the Namibia Qualifications Authority (NQA), after serving as the Deputy Director responsible for Namibia qualifications related affairs while NQA was still under the Ministry of Education. He has further served as a Chief Higher Education Officer at the same Ministry and a Teacher.

Franz is a holder of a Masters of Business Administration degree amongst others, and he received extensive training in quality in Germany and is an IRCA registered Quality Auditor.

Franz boasts an intensive exposure to the corporate governance environment. He served on the Boards of INQAAHE, the Namibia Training Authority (NTA), and Namibia Students Financial Assistance Fund, the Board of the Namibia Institute of Public Administration and Management (NIPAM) as well as National Council for Higher Education (NCHE). He has also served, on an ad hoc basis, on bodies such as the SADC Technical Commissions on Accreditation and the UNESCO World Experts Forum on Referencing. He is the current Chair of the Transnational Qualifications Framework Management Committee under the aegis of the Commonwealth of Learning.