

María José Lemaitre

milemaitre@cinda.cl mariajoselemaitre@gmail.com

Sociologist, with graduate studies in education, is currently the Executive Director of CINDA, a network of universities in Latin America and Europe. As a representative of CINDA, she is responsible for the operation of the International Institute for Quality (IAC), recognized as an accrediting body by the government of the republic of Peru.

Former president of INQAAHE and of RIACES, the Iberoamerican Network for QA, she was a member of the Advisory Council of the CHEA International Quality Group until December 31st 2017.

She was in charge of the design and implementation of quality assurance processes in Chile between 1990 and 2007 and has published many articles on the quality and management of higher education.

She has served as a consultant on the development of quality assurance, higher education management and policy design and implementation in the field of higher education, for institutions, governments and bi and multilateral organizations in Central and South America, the Caribbean, the Middle East, Africa, East Europe, Central and Southeast Asia.

She has also chaired reviews of quality assurance programs and processes for DAAD, UNESCO, IDB and the World Bank, and is currently a member of the OECD review team in charge of evaluating the Brazilian quality assurance scheme.

Santiago, March 2018

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'María José Lemaitre', written in a cursive style.